THE COURTS.

RIVAL GAS COMPANIES. Yesterday morning Henry M. Benedict, the presi-ent of the new gas company of Brooklyn known a the Fulton Municipal, on whom Judge Neilson ut an injunction, stopping the laying of pipes, plied through the counsel of the company, Mr. Court, Chambers, for an order affirming the order of ige Donohue appointing Police Commissioner neral James Jourdan, of Brooklyn, receiver of the Judge Donohue appointing Police Commissioner General James Jourdan, of Brooklyn, receiver of the old Mutual Gas Company, of Brooklyn, and directing him to proceed with the laying of the gas pipes which Judge Neilson had prohibited the new company from laying. Under this order General Jourdan is compelled to proceed with the unfinished work commenced by the Fulton Municipal Gas Company, notwithstanding Judge Neilson's injunction on behalf of the city of Brooklyn. The papers on which the order was granted consist of a summon and complaint, in an action brought by Mr. Benedict to foreclose a deed of trust, given by the old Mutual Gaslight Company, to secure the payment of $150,000 of coupon bonds. Mr. Benedict got possession of these bonds, on which both the principal and interest had become due, and by foreclosing this mortgage he succeeds to and avails himself of the license which the Common Council of the city of Brooklyn had given that company to lay gas pipes in the streets. Many of the officials in Brooklyn being, as alleged, stockholders in the old gas companies were able to prevent the Common Council from giving permission to the new gas company to lay its mains in the public streets. By this proceeding on the part of Mr. Benedict, it appears, both the old gas company traverses the atreets of the City of Churches and lays its pipe with impunity, guarded on one side by the ghost of a dead company and on the other by the Police Commissioner, as the latter's receiver, while the citizens of Brooklyn look on and hurrah for the mottoes, "Cheap Gas" and "No Monopoly."

SUMMARY OF LAW CASES

Claudius Bernice was brought before United States Commissioner Shields yesterday upon a charge of esisting a government officer. The facts of the ase were published yesterday. Bernice waived exmination and was held in $1,000 bail to await the ction of the Grand Jury. In explaining the as-action of the Grand Jury. In explaining the assault charged against him Bernice said that he did not know the officer, and when roughly handled by a stranger very naturally defended himself.

The members of the Germania Schützen Bundes (Washington Rifles), which is an organization composed of about five thousand Germans, have for a long time past been fightling among each other, and the requent quarrels between them ultimately resulted in the removal of the Brigadier General, John H. Klathar; the secretary, William Eichorn, and a great many leaders of one of the opposing factions.
The organization brought a great many suits against Klathaar and others to recover the books and moneys.
Eichorn, feeling aggrieved at his removal, which he alieges was without cause, has through his counsel,
Mr. Alfred Steckler, commenced a suit in the Court of Common Pleas for his reinstatement, claiming that he was expelled without an opportunity to be heard.

CALENDAR.

The following is the day calendar for Friday, Ocober 3, 1879;—Nos. 31, 80, 19, 26, 33, 58, 79, 68. STOLEN BY MASKED MEN.

On Wednesday evening Detectives Price and Schmittberger, of the Twenty-ninth precinct, in passing up Sixth avenue, near Forty-second street, upon a couple of men moving rapidly along tectives followed and saw one of them gather the folds of the bag in his hand, when its appearance tolds of the bag in his hand, when its appearance disclosed that it must contain other material than flour. They at once closed upon the pair, and Detective Schmittberger had his hand on the shoulder of the man with the bundle, when the fellow's companion dashed sway. Leaving Price with the prisoner, Schmittberger pursued the fugitive, but, after a brisk run, was forced to give over the chase. The bundle had meantime been opened and in it was found a heap of silver plate and other variable articles. Its bearer was hurried to the station house in Thirtich street, where he gave his name as William Hubbard, and where an examination revealed the fact that he had come from Westchester county. This directed attention to the actual source of the plunder. About a week ago, it will be remembered, several private residences about New Rochelle were entered by masked burglars and a large amount of valuables carried off. The total must have reached many thousand dollars, and the police have since been working hard to get some clew to the thieves. On one of the silver napkin rings found in the bundle was the inscription, "Mrs. M. L. Scudder, from her class." It was then learned that one of the victims of the burglars was the pastor of the Methodist Church at Mount Vernon, Rev. M. L. Scudder by name, and a notification of the arrest was sent to him. Yesterday afternoon he appeared at the station house and recognized the silver plate as his own. On Tuesday night the farochial residence had been ransacked, and the silverware, which had been placed in a pantry, had been carried off.

Hubbard was taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court in the atternoon and remanded by Justice Flammer. It is said that the police have learned the whereabouts of much more of the booty and know something of the offenders' identity.

"I didn't say you were," answered the officer, "am I any of these things?"

"But you were drunk, Dorgan," said the magistrate.

"I don't deny it."

THE DOCK COMMISSIONERS.

At yesterday's meeting of the Dock Commission-ens a report was made showing that the Police Depertment is committing a nulsance between piers Nes. 36 and 37 North River. And when the Board called the attention of the Police Commissioners thereto, no answer had been returned. The Pilot Commissioners sent a letter enclosing a report by Amos L. Ogden charging that on September 23 the Anchor line steamship Devonia threw fifty straw mattresses into the slip by their pier, and on the 27th forty were threwn in from the steamship Bolivia. The agent of the line was summoned to appear at the Dock Department and answer the violation of the law against filling up the harbor.

The Dock Commissioners have under consideration the erection of two new piers for the Fennsylvania Railroad Company, at the foot of Laight street, at a cost of $150,000, which when finished will bring in a rental yearly of $60,000. Commissioner Vanderpoel reports that there are on file five or six applications for piers that will rent for $30,000 per year each, which they are unable to supply.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

THE PROPOSED VISIT OF M. DE LESSEPS TO THIS COUNTRY-HANDLING AND STORING GRAIN ABBOAD-A LETTER FROM RECEIVER

dent Babcock presiding. After the adoption of the minutes of the June meeting several merchants were admitted to membership. The Executive Committee reported having received a letter from M. de Lesseps, announcing his intention of visiting this country, and recommending that he be properly received and requested to address the Chamber on the Darien Canal project. The offer of a room in their new building was received from the Produce Exchange. A communication was read from the Sydney Board of Trade in relation to duty charged by the the Bristol (England) Board of Trade, inquiring what effect the repeal of the Bankrunt law has had

United States on Australian wool, and one from the Bristol (England) Board of Trade, inquiring what effect the repeal of the Bankrupt law has had on American commerce. Still another letter was received from the State Department relative to alleged violations of the Customa laws of Cuba by American traders. Mr. Elliott F. Shepard, who has recently been abroad, spoke at considerable length on the cost of handling and storing grain in England and France, where, he said, the charges were far higher than in the city of New York. At Liverpool the work is monopolized by the Mersey Docks and Harbor Board. At Havre, the chief grain port of France, the charges for handling and storing grain double the cost of the article to the consumer. The establishment of an clevator (now projected) there by American enterprise is fostered by Consul General Bridgolaud.

Mr. Charles H. Marshall offered a preamble and resolutions relating to the schoolship St. Mary's, which, it seems, is to be succeeded in its present service by the Supply. At least such a change is contemplated by the Navy Department, notwithstanding, as Mr. Marshall claims, the disadvantages which would probably ensue. He argued that the St. Mary's has proved admirably fitted for the purposes of a schoolship, while the Supply is not at all adapted for such use, and could not be altered as she would have to be without an outlay of soveral thousands of dollars. For these reasons the Secretary of the Navy will be appealed to "to continue to the Board of Education of this city the vessel at present occupied by the Nautical School, an institution in which the Chamber has a deep interest and an actual voice in the management through a council appointed by this body." The Chamber accepted an invitation to inspect the St. Mary's on the 17th inst., at two P. M.

Mr. Samuel B. Ruggles, who represented the Chamber of Commercial thought of the provention of the control of the first present adoption throughout the world.

A NEW COAL COMBINATION.

JUDGE LATHROP'S AGREEMENT SIGNED BY ALL BUT TWO COMPANIES-CONSEQUENT RISE IN STOCKS.

Notwithstanding the statements of the m of the coal companies on Wednesday that no further progress had been made toward any kind of agreement to advance the price of coal, and, although it was stated that the possibilities of a combination were very remote, something happened yesterday that promises to force the consumer, who has not already purchased his winter coal, to pay whatover price may be demanded by the producers. Wall street was excited throughout the morning by the reports of a combination having been formed, actions of some of the coal managers gave strength to the rumors. President Franklin B. Gowen, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, accompanied by Receiver Tillinghast, of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, were noticed calling at the offices of the other coal companies; and later in the day Judge Lathrop, of the New Gowen in those visits. Shortly before one o'clock the coal stocks began to advance rapidly, and it was the coal stocks began to advance rapidly, and it was then stated positively on the "street" that the managers had wheeled into line and signed the agreement. On investigation it was learned that this was partly true, and that the paper prepared by Judge Lathrop had received the signatures of Franklin B. Gowen, president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroai Company; W. J. Tillinghast, receiver of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company; Judge Lathrop receiver of the New Jersey Central Railroad Company; Thomas Dickson, president of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company; George Hoyt, president of the Pennsylvania Coal Company;
H. J. Jewett, president of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company, and Samuel Sloan, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company. The only parties whose signatures are wanting to make the agreement binding are Harry Packer, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and the manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Judge Lathrop expressed the opinion that their signatures would be easily obtained. He said the origival document was forwarded to Philadelphia yesterday afternoon, and retused to give the full text of the paper. It was learned, however, from other sources that the following were the important points:—

The companies agree to restrict from time to time

torday afternoon, and retused to give the full text of the paper. It was learned, however, from other sources that the following were the important points:—

The companies agree to restrict from time to time the production of coal to the demand, and in allotting the restrictions the interests of each party will be determined by their output from October I, 1879, up to the time the restriction is determined upon.
Each party to the agreement is to dispose of its production at any price it may please. When restriction is to be determined upon it shall be by a twothirds vote of the entire interests. The agreement is not to be binding unless signed by every interest before the 10th day of October. It also contains provisions for the formation of an Exchange, to be composed of the sales agents of the different companios, and it provides that prices shall be advanced on or before October 10. The sales agents are to meet daily or whenever required.

HEXPECTED ADVANCE.

It was stated that there will be an advance in coal of fitteen cents per ton every fitteen days for several months, and that the combination will hast for three years. It was reported that the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company intend to advance their prices twenty-five cents per ton to-day.

The signing of the agreement had a marked effect on the coal stocks. Of Delaware and Hudson 10,000 shares were dealt in, the opening price being 60½ and the closing price 64½, of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 91,250 shares were dealt in, opening price, 68%; closing, 75; of New Jorsey Central, 4,000 shares, opening price, 60%; closing, 65; of Eric, 109,000 shares; opening price, 10sing, 65; of

THE CHARGES AGAINST THE SHERIFF.

The investigation into the charges of negligence and overcharges brought against Sheriff Reilly was brought to a close yesterday by argument of Mr. J. Adviance Bush, on behalf of the charges, before Adriance Bush, on behalf of the charges, before Commissioner Curtis. Mr. Bush reviewed the testimony at length, claiming that the charges of extortion had been proved. Mr. Laroeque, on behalf of the Sheriff, briefly replied, and claimed that there was not one tota of testimony to show that Sheriff Reilly had ever received, personally, one cent beyond that which was lawfully due to him as Sheriff. Mr. Curtis took the papers and will forward his report to Governor Robinson.

ALLEGED SINECURES.

At a session of the Kings County Board of Charity Commissioners held at Flatbush on Wednesday it was moved by Commissioner Henry that the names of Cornelius Forgueson, Jr., and Thomas C. Abbott be stricken from the payroll, as they did no Abbott be stricken from the payroll, as they did no work. A motion was made by Commissioner Storms to lay Mr. Henry's motion on the table, and the previous question was called. The motion to lay on the table was voted for by Commissioners Storms, Midas and Zeiser. Mr. Henry said that these are two sinecures, one drawing $1,000 and the other $600. One of the men, he said, is studying law, and the other is in business at Coney Island. It was his intention, he said, to have increased the pay of the engineers, who were not paid enough. Commissioner Storms replied to Mr. Henry and said that his statements in regard to Messis. Forgueson and Abbott were incorrect.

FATAL FAMILY FEUD.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY AT WEST ORANGE, N. J .-A PRUSSIAN TRIES TO MURDER HIS PATHER-IN-LAW AND THEN SHOOTS HIMSELF DEAD. West Orange nestles picturesquely at the base of the Orange Mountain and just beyond Orange proper. On Wednesday evening it was the scene of a shocking tragedy. Anthony Kunick, a Prussian a shocking tragedy. Anthony Kunick, a Prussian by birth, but for thirty years a resident of this country, attempted to murder his father-in-law, Mr. Thomas O. Woodruff, formerly a member of the Essex County Board of Freeholders, and then, bolieving that he had accomplished his purpose, put his revolver to his own head pose, put his revolver to his own head and shot himself dead. The tragedy was the climax of a quarrel between the two men over some real estate transactions. The facts, as obtained from Mr. Woodruff and others, appear to be as follows:— Anthony Kunick was about fifty years of age. In real estate transactions. The facts, as obtained from Mr. Woodruff and others, appear to be as follows:—Anthony Kunick was about fifty years of age. In 1850 he came to this country, having fied his native land, it is said, in consequence of being involved in the Baden revolution of '48 and the troubles in the same neighborhood a year later. He settled in Newark and started a boot and shoe business. He prospered and soon wooded and won for his wife Miss Eliza Ann Woodruff, ex-Frecholder Woodruff's daughter. This was twenty-two years ago. Five years since Kunick became possessed of a desire to go farming. He and his father-in-law looked into the matter, and went through New Jorsey and the adjoining States prospecting. Finally they fixed upon a farm of seventy-two acres in Charlotte county, Va., which Kunick purchased.

In April, 1874, Mr. Kunick moved with his family to his new home. He now had a daughter just budding into womanhood and a son-some years younger. In 1877 Mrs. Kunick died. Her husband and her father had had money transactions. The two disagreed, and after the death of Mrs. Kunick an estrangement took place between them.

A house owned by Mrs. Kunick, which passed to the husband, had a mortgage on it. This was held by Mr. Woodruff. About it he and Kunick quarrelled. On Monday Kunick arrived from Virginia and visited Newark, and then West Orange, where he met his father-in-law. Kunick had first visited Mr. Horsee Carter, of Woodside, and tried to get from him a loan of $500 on the Newark property. Mr. Carter declined without consulting Mr. Woodruff, with whom he is associated in some kusiness matters. On Wednesday the two gontlemen consulted, and the result was that the loan asked by Kunick was refused. He was present at the interview and returned to Newark with his father-in-law. He looked downcast and dejected. The pair separated near the Morris and Essex depot, Mr. Woodruff, with whom he is associated in some kinsiness matters. On Wednesday the two gontiemen consulted, and the result was that the

"L" ROAD GOSSIP.

SUNDAY TRAINS ON THE WEST SIDE LINES-SLOW WORK IN SECOND AVENUE.

Last Sunday the trains on the Metropolitan "L" were overcrowded with excursionists going over the new part of the line to 135th street. Much discomfort was also occasioned by the fact that at the ter-minal station at 135th street only the easterly side of minal station at 135th street only the easterly side of the station was in use, so that people getting off and on the cars were both mingled in great crowds on the platform, and, to make matters still worse, only one stairway for this station had as yet been putup. Superintendent Van Brocklin said yesterday that the travel last Sunday had so far exceeded all expectations that preparations had been made to afford ample accommodations next Sunday. The westerly side of the 135th street station for passengers going down town would be in readiness for use, and, to accommodate the large number of travellers and excursionists in the morning, the trains on the Ninth avenue "L," which have hitherto stopped at Fifty-mith street, would henceforth run through from the South ferry to 135th street from half-past seven A. M. to eight P. M. Trains on the Sixth avenue line would run as herotofore from half-past twelve P. M., so that there would be twice as many trains above Fifty-mith street next Sunday as there were last.

said yesterday that the directors had discussed the matter and seemed to favor the running of trains all day Sunday on the line in Sixth avenue. With a view to overcoming the objection of the churches it had been agreed that no trains should leave the terminal stations from about twenty minutes to eleven to half-past twelve o'clock, so that no trains should pass any of the churches along the line of the Sixth avenue after eleven o'clock in the morning and before half-past twelve o'clock in the morning and before half-past twelve o'tlock in the morning and becord and to try it till the Sunday after next.

Very slow progress is now being made on the Second avenue line, which was originally promised to be ready for operation as far as Sixty-seventh street during the present month. It is now stated by persons who have carefully watched the progress of the work for the last few weeks that if it continues to advance after the present small-like fashion it will hardly be running to Sixty-seventh street this year. As the branch to the City Hall, which was a great convenience to thousands of people, will not be reopened until the Second avenue line is running, owing to the changes necessary at Chatham square, this vexatious delay is the source of much complaint, and the general grumbling will probably increase still more when the cold weather sets in and the streets are covered with snow and slush. Secretary Bodie, of the Metropolitan "L," when asked as to the cause of the long delay, said that the Messrs, Cornell, who had the contract for the stations, were principally to blame for it, but that they excused themselves on the ground of being overcowded with orders for iron work.

PEABODY EDUCATION FUND.

The trustees of the Peabody Education Fund again assembled at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. The committee—consisting of Mr. Hamilton Fish, Bishop Whipple and General Barnes—to whom was referred that portion of President Winthrop's opening adwhipple and General Earnes—to whom was referred that portion of President Winthrop's opening address relating to the loss sustained by the Board of Trustees in the recent death of General Richard Taylor, of Louisians, who was one of its members, reported resolutions in honor of the memory of the deceased. The resolutions were adopted and placed upon the records of the meeting. Messrs. William M. Evarts, H. H. Stuart, of Virginis, and Chief Justice Watte, who on Wednesday were appointed a committee to consider those portions of the president's address and of the general agent's report that related to the proposition to invoke the aid of the national government for the education of the colored children in the Southern States, reported that they had not arrived at any definite understanding in regard to the subject, and asked leave to report fully at the next meeting of the trustees. The selection or election of a successor to the late General Taylor, in the Board, was also left over until the next meeting. The trustees spent some time discussing the condition of the Normal College at Nashville, Tenn. The standing committees were reappointed with the exception that General Henry R. Jackson, of Savannah, the, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Executive Committee caused by the death of General Taylor, On motion of Mr. Evarts, the Board adjourned, to meet at Washington on the 18th of February next.

KIDDLE'S SUCCESSOR.

The new Superintendent of Schools, John Jasper who was elected on Wednesday evening to succeed Henry Kiddle, was sworn in by Clerk Kernan at the rooms of the Board of Education yesterday afternoon, and at once entered upon his duties. His promotion makes a vacancy in the corps of assistant superintendents. Already there are a number of candidates, including James Godwin, formerly tutor in the New York College; John G. McNeary, principal of Grammar School No. 1; Thomas S. O'Brien, principal of Grammar School No. 29, and Thomas G.
Williamson, principal of Grammar School No. 10.

TERRIBLY BURNED.

A fire broke out at one o'clock yesterday morning in the dwelling house No. 77% Division street, occupied by Mr. Jacobson. The house is a three story strucsecond floor. Mr. Jacobson's son Leon, twenty-five years of age, was sleeping in the apartment. Suddenly the whole burning celling fell upon him, burning his face and limbs terribly. An alarm of fire was sounded by Officer Cook, of the Seventh precinct, and the fire was soon extinguished by the engines. The young man was removed to Chambers Street Hospital in an ambulance in great agony.

THE SINKING FUND.

A special meeting of the Sinking Fund Commis sioners was held in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon. Comptroller Kelly was authorized to issue bonds to the amount of $203,530 for the purpose of purchasing pier 44, North River, from the Inman Steamship Company, in accordance with crity side of the 135th street station for passengers going down town would be in readiness for use, and, to accommodate the large number of travellers and excursionists in the morning, the trains on the Ninth avenue "L," which have hitherto stopped at Fifty-ninth street, would henceforth run through from the South ferry to 135th street from half-past seven A. M. to eight P. M. Trains on the Sixth avenue line would run as heretofore from half-past twelve P. M., so that there would be twice as many trains above Fifty-ninth street next Sunday as there were last.

Vice President Guilford, of the Manhattan "L," said yesterday that the directors had discussed the worker and seemed to favor the running of trains all contents and seemed to favor the running of trains all which he says:—

Having this day completed an examination of the bonds and stocks shown to me as the investments of your commission of date June 39, 1879, I would respectfully report that I find them to equal in amount the sum of S31,871,891 91, and to agree in all respects with lists of bonds and stocks as furnished by your secretary. This above amount also agrees, first, with the books of your commission as kept in the Funance Dopartment; second, with the sinking fund accounts as kept in the office of the Commissioners of Accounts: and, third, with the statements of the Comptroller as published in the Cay Record of July 3, 1879. This latter statement gives:—Sinking fund (investment and cash), $34,019,755 62, the items of which are—Cash in bank, $2,135,803 78; investments as before stated, $31,874,801 84.

THE SAMORS' PROTECTORS.

The Board of Commissioners for Licensing Sailors Boarding Houses met yesterday afternoon, with President Luce in the chair. Charles H. Marshall was sworn in as the representative of the Ship-owners' Association vice James J. Ferris, resigned. owners' Association vice James J. Ferris, resigned. Some time ago it was decided that the President of the Board should not receive a salary; but Captain Wilson, who held that position just previous to the present incumbent, made a motion that the question should be reconsidered. He said that when the old Board was broken up his colleagues asked him to serve as presiding officer, and agreed to pay him a salary of $400 per annum as president and for his time in inspecting sailors' boarding houses. Commissioner Morgan said that they could not do so out of the $1,500 appropriated by asking what right the Board had to vote a salary of $1,000 to the Secretary, N. Dans Welles, if the appropriation was so small. He claimed that his colleagues were simply springing a trap upon him, and threatened to carry the matter into the courts. President Luce advised, however, that the Board compensate Commissioner Wilson as soon as possible and let him depart in peace. Resolutions were adopted extending reliet to two shipwrecked sailors and several licenses were granted to boarding house keepers.
